Pursuits from the Roots

L O R A C H O W
PLAYS LORA CHOW

Just as leaves of one tree can grow in different directions, displaying a spectrum of colors while sharing the same roots, we too, as humans of diverse backgrounds, share a common humanity. Created based on this truth, “Pursuits from the Roots” is a warm invitation to connect with your heart and experience the wonders of nature through soul-stirring music.

This album, a collection of eighteen original piano pieces, encourages you to delve deep within, to uncover your own truth and recognize the interconnectedness that binds us all. Some days we bloom and shine; other days we grow roots and ground deeper. Whether seen or unseen, we are growing and becoming more extraordinary.

Let the music remind you of the beauty and strength you carry within.
