

PRIMA CLASSIC PRESENTS

Just as leaves of one tree can grow in different directions, displaying a spectrum of colors while sharing the same roots, we too, as humans of diverse backgrounds, share a common humanity.

Created based on this truth, Pursuits from the Roots is a warm invitation to connect with your heart and experience the wonders of nature through soul-stirring music.

LORA CHOW

Lora Chow, a Hong Kong-born composer, coloratura soprano, pianist and multi-instrumentalist, is a dynamic force in the world of music.

PURSUIITS FROM THE ROOTS

This album, a collection of eighteen original piano pieces, encourages you to delve deep within, to uncover your own truth and recognize the interconnectedness that binds us all. Some days we bloom and shine; other days we grow roots and ground deeper. Whether seen or unseen, we are growing and becoming more extraordinary.

Let the music remind you of the beauty and strength you carry within.

LORA CHOW

Lora's music explores the relationship between the inner-self and the external world. With musical ideas often coming directly from her unconscious mind, she expresses feelings arising from her life journey through memorable melodies and colourful harmony. Known for their healing and soothing effects, her compositions show the transformative power of music on wellbeing.

Lora has won many awards, such as the Chigiana Film Scoring Award for Best Storytelling, the CASH Music Fund, the Cole Porter Fellowship in Music and Theater, the Louis Sudler Creative and Performing Arts Award, the Curtis Recital Plate, the Katie Lees Award for Musicianship, and the Anita Hewitt-Jones Composition Prize.
