

PRIMA CLASSIC PRESENTS

This GLIMMERING World* invites listeners to reflect on life's simplest yet most profound joys...

Through her evocative melodies, Elena KOLE explores the fragile beauty of human connection, the irreplaceable glow of childhood memories, and the quiet strength found in nature's simplicity. This album encourages us to cherish what truly matters in a world that often dazzles but doesn't always fulfil its promises.

The world lures us, dazzles with its brilliance, and at times, promises what it can't deliver.

Protect your own inner light, your beautiful and glimmering inner world.

Be yourself, do not lose connection with your past, with your childhood.

Your first love, the unforgettable impressions nature sometimes gives us, waiting for a loved one and its sense of happiness,
a heart-to-heart talk with a friend...

...these are the most valuable things you have.

Be like a flower: it will never take more water than what it needs.

ELENA KOLE

Elena Kole (Elena Kolesnikova Sheglova) was born into a family steeped in cultural and musical traditions. Her grandfather, Nikolai Sheglov, served as a priest and musician at the Rachmaninov family manor, a cultural hub that hosted choirs and orchestras. Encouraged by her mother's passion for classical music, Elena began piano lessons at six, developing her talents at the prestigious Rimsky-Korsakov State Higher Conservatory in Saint Petersburg, where she also later taught for twelve years.

Since moving to Spain in 2002, Elena has continued her career as a professor at the Liceu Higher Conservatory in Barcelona, while performing in renowned venues like the Concertgebouw and the Gran Teatre del Liceu. A prolific recording artist, she has collaborated with Prima Classic since 2021, producing five albums that have amassed over 30 million streams. In addition to her musical endeavors, she is an active writer for leading Spanish music magazines and a member of the Association of Catalan Composers.
