

PRIMA CLASSIC PRESENTS

Soprano Marina Rebeka sings "Tell the World"
A song of hope, light, and love

"The nightingale greets the day in the darkness
This song of life wakes me up to new rebirth,
Let's bring all good into the future,
The past is gone and we fear it no more,
A whole new life is just beginning
You can tell the world."

Tell The World is a soaring celebration of life's beauty and the natural world, with Marina Rebeka's extraordinary voice conveying a message of hope and unity for a better future.

This poignant and inspiring song is sure to resonate with audiences worldwide, reminding us of the transformative power of music to bring people together and uplift the human spirit.

Marina Rebeka, soprano

Latvian soprano Marina Rebeka is one of the leading opera singers of our time.

Since her international breakthrough at the Salzburg Festival in 2009 under the baton of Riccardo Muti, Rebeka has been a regular guest at the world's most prestigious concert halls and opera houses, including the Teatro alla Scala (Milan), the Opéra National de Paris, the Metropolitan Opera (New York), the Royal Opera House Covent Garden (London), the Bavarian State Opera (Munich), the Vienna State Opera, and the Zurich Opera House.

Rebeka's discography includes Rossini's Petite Messe Solennelle, Mozart's arias, Amor Fatale (an album of Rossini's arias), Verdi's Luisa Miller, and Mozart's La Clemenza di Tito. On her own record label, Prima Classic, she has released the album Spirito, Verdi's La Traviata, and her solo albums Elle (French opera arias) and Credo (a selection of sacred and spiritual music). Rebeka also sang the role of Imogene in the recording of Bellini's Il Pirata, an album released by Prima Classic that received the 2022 International Classical Music Award (ICMA) for opera recording of the year. Also in 2022, she recorded the title role of Spontini's full opera La Vestale for the CD Book series of Bru Zane Label.

In December 2016, Rebeka was granted the Order of the Three Stars, the highest award of the Republic of Latvia, for her cultural achievements. In the 2017/18 season, she was named the first-ever artist in residence by the Münchner Rundfunkorchester. In 2020, she received the International Classical Music Award (ICMA) for artist of the year and the Latvian Ministry of Culture Award for Excellence. In 2021, she was awarded the first-ever Premio alla Carriera "Toti dal Monte".

Also an actress, Rebeka portrayed one of the main roles in the film "The Land that Sings", a period drama based on the birth of Latvia. The film will be released worldwide in November 2024.
